

Please protect the privacy of fellow Members! Violating any of these guidelines may result in blocked access. By becoming an ESC Online Community Member you agree to the following rules of use:

- The ESC Online Community is intended for personal and ministry use. It is not for solicitation of any kind. Communication to large groups or multiple groups is approved and sent via the church office.
- Protect the privacy of members by not giving their phone number or other personal information to people outside of ESC. If you would like someone's number and they are "unlisted," please ask them directly. ESC cannot give out this information without prior consent. Our leaders guard and use this private information with care.
- Use the ESC Online Community with care and courtesy for personal and friendly communication. Even if it's interesting, funny, or important, do not send unsolicited information. Do not add members to email lists outside the ESC Online Community without prior consent.
- Members who engage in group message boards are not to disrespect other individuals, groups, churches, or organizations or attempt to solicit members for outside groups or organizations. Keep the group message boards and emails personal, positive, and profitable.
- Online Members who do not follow these guidelines and/or who abuse the ESC Online Community will have their access to the system limited or revoked.
- Members are to inform the church office of any problems they encounter so a resolution can be found. Email: [office@east sunshine.org](mailto:office@east sunshine.org)
